

Michael Choquette
Revere Copper Products, Inc.

Michael Choquette serves as the Quality Administrator and Training Manager of Revere Copper Products Inc.

His career spans more than 45 years of Education and Training experience with Revere, MCI, and the United States Air Force. Today he is responsible for design and delivery of the education and training needed at all levels of the organization to build and enhance leadership, safety, quality, technical, and other skills.

Mike is also the leader of the Reverses Skilled Trades Apprentice Programs. He establishes and oversees the required formal education, monitors peer to peer training through appraisals / performance reviews, and ensures all requirements to deliver New York States Department of Labor reporting, needed for successful completion, is accomplished.

He also leads and coordinates various other programs and processes to include: Quality - ISO Administration - New York State and Federal Grant Development and Administration - ISO Document Development - Internal Audit Programs and Corrective Action Process - Process Control/Deviations processes - Precision Instrument Calibrations - Education and Training Planning - Training implementation and delivery, and the monitoring of learning initiatives, Knowledge Transfer, and employee development.

Mike is a graduate of Park University Missouri, and holds a degree in Human Resources and Management. He has also earned an Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base Alabama, Community College of the Air Force Degree, in Logistics Management.